About School of Arts and Humanities

The School of Arts and Humanities, IIMT University moves ahead with a great vision to impart quality education to the young aspirants pursuing B.A, B.A (H), Business Economics, B.A (Hons.) English, B.A (Hons.) Psychology, M.A. in Hindi, English, Political Science, Economics, Psychology. History, Sociology along with Doctorate Programme. It offers students and researchers the opportunities to develop their skills and practice as artists, makers, historians, theorist, writers and curators. All are encouraged to focus in depth on the particularities of their own work while also being exposed to the more critically diverse positions across the school. As we are fast treading ahead on the path of progress, it is essential to hold on to our past glory as well to create a splendid present and a magnificent future for ourselves. This is exactly what the School of Arts and Humanities, IIMT University aims to teach the present youth. Arts and Humanities not only imbibe the qualities of a rational being but also prove to be highly instrumental in nurturing the aesthetic talents of the present generation. It opens vistas to endless job opportunities and paves way for the Civil Services aspirants. Thus, Arts and Humanities open windows to the World culture and helps in knowing the World from different perspectives. It is proven fact that Arts and Humanities have given to this nation some of the finest personalities who have made their mark in the whole world.

About the Conference

Literature is intimately related to society. A body of literature is part of the entire culture of a people. The literature of an age, and its social set up keeping and reacting one over the other. Literature influences the society; society is reflected in literature and in this way, in all languages and at all times there has been a close interaction between the two. Literature of any age cannot escape the influence of the social science and therefore, is found reflecting the society of the age when it is created. The poet, the dramatist, the novelist, the essayist, the economist, the politician, the philanthropist, the psychologist, etc. are all the product of their age and their-age openly and clearly gets imaged in their compositions. Interdisciplinary study approaches have been strongly committed to the significant issues of the contemporary society. They are also emerging as well as important themes in contemporary literature, with writers exploring complex relations in various social, political, and cultural contexts. Therefore, society influences literature in many ways, and the connections of literature with society are integral and pervasive.
